Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to [REDACTED] email below and advise that Council would treat any submission received in accordance with the provision of the GIPA Act.

From previous discussions, and our telephone conversation today, I understand [REDACTED]

Please be advised that Council would consult with [REDACTED] prior to releasing any information to another party. [REDACTED] would be invited to comment prior to release of any information received by [REDACTED]. This would give [REDACTED] the ability to request that Council either release the information or restrict the release for reasons such as:

1. the release may contravene the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 or

As discussed today be aware that any formal application received under GIPA has review rights which may lead to a review by the Office of the Information Commissioner. The Commission would consult with Council should this occur.

Tony thanks for the quick response.

How do [REDACTED] do this, i.e. separate letter to Council marked to your attention or is there a different process.

Regards

Hi [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] letter to the Council Development Services Group or email it to council@portstephens.nsw.gov.au.

I have re-affirmed with staff that they need to ensure they check with me before anything is released. I know they are already doing this but just to make sure.
