Ms / Mrs Ryeland,

Thank you for your email below.

I sincerely apologise for the complexity or confusion of my corporate enquiry. My intention was to be very straightforward and concise.

There was no request for information pertaining to the access to any event video recording post-event.

The request sought the Commissioners QUOTE “.....reasons why you have totally excluded the NSW public from the subject event.” UNQUOTE. (Please refer to my disclaimer below)

In this regard, I again respectfully ask the Commissioner to provide those reasons.

Have a lovely weekend.

Subject: Corporate Enquiry - Right to Know Week 2026

OFFICIAL

Dear Ms Webb,

Thank you for your interest in Right to Know Week 2026.

With respect to the Right to Know Week event in Parliament House, the Information Commissioner would like to advise that the recording of the event will be made available to all members of the public on the IPC YouTube channel following the event, similar to the same event last year.

Kind regards

Nicola Ryeland
